Honorable William Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

We are asking a very select group to an off-the-record dinner discussion on Wednesday, October 13, to focus on the larger long-term political, economic, ideological and geo-strategic questions raised by the continuing debate on whether the US should place its bets on Communist China, back Taiwan and the rest of non-communist Asia, or somehow hedge our bets.

Leading the discussion will be Dr. Ray Cline, Senior Associate, Georgetown Center for Strategic and International Studies and former Deputy Director for Intelligence, CIA.

The dinner will be held in the Tastevin Room of the International Club at 1800 K Street, NW, Washington, D.C. beginning with cocktails at 6:30 pm and dinner at 7:30 pm. The adjournment will be approximately 10:00 pm. Please RSVP by October 7 to Ms. Jill Fall at (202) 296-6406.

With best regards, I am

Faithfully,

Frank R. Barnett
President
